Report on GURUPAURNIMA CELEBRATION

INTRODUCTION

Guru Purnima, a revered occasion dedicated to honoring teachers and mentors, was celebrated with great enthusiasm on 10th July 2025 at AIMS College of Pharmacy. The event was jointly organized by the students of B. Pharmacy and D. Pharmacy in Classroom 401 from 3:00 PM to 4:00 PM. The celebration was a heartfelt tribute to the dedication, guidance, and support of the teaching faculty.

EXPLANATION

The event commenced with students warmly welcoming their teachers and surprising them with a beautifully arranged celebration. A cake was brought by the students as a token of appreciation, symbolizing sweetness and gratitude toward their educators.

Some students stepped forward to express their thoughts and emotions through short speeches, reflecting on the influence of their teachers in shaping their academic and personal lives. Each teacher was then felicitated with a pen a simple yet meaningful gesture representing the power of knowledge and education.

Dr. Pritam Juvatkar, the respected Head of the Department, delivered an inspiring speech. He shared valuable life experiences and real-life examples that resonated deeply with both students and staff, emphasizing the lasting impact of teachers.

Photos were taken to capture the precious moments of bonding and appreciation between students and faculty.

To conclude the event, Mrs. Ashwini addressed the gathering. She expressed her heartfelt gratitude to the students for organizing such a thoughtful and memorable celebration and commended their respect and admiration for the teaching staff.

Conclusion

The Guru Purnima celebration at AIMS College of Pharmacy was a touching and meaningful event that reinforced the strong bond between students and teachers. It not only honored the invaluable contributions of educators but also created lasting memories of respect, inspiration, and joy. The success of the event highlighted the students' deep appreciation and the spirit of togetherness that thrives within the college community.
