Report of World Pharmacist Day Celebration 2025

The World Pharmacist Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm and participation at AIMS College of Pharmacy, Vadavali, Dombivli. The event was held in the college auditorium and was successfully conducted with the coordination and support of all the faculty members and student council.

The program commenced with a warm welcome and anchoring by Mr. Addas Shaikh, a Third-Year B. Pharm student, who managed the event flow efficiently. The celebration began with the Pharmacist's Oath, solemnly taken by all present, signifying their dedication to the profession and ethical responsibilities.

Following the introduction, Ms. Sakshi Dhane, a student of Third-Year B. Pharm, came forward to lead the Pharmacist's Oath, which was recited by all students in unison after her, reaffirming their commitment to the ethics and responsibilities of the pharmacy profession.

The event witnessed the active presence and participation of students from Second-Year B. Pharm, Third-Year B. Pharm, and Second-Year D. Pharm. Their involvement added energy and enthusiasm to the program.

To mark the significance of World Pharmacist Day, a National E-Poster Competition was organized, which provided a platform for students to showcase their creativity and understanding of the pharmacy profession. The competition witnessed impressive submissions and thoughtful presentations.

All arrangements for the event, including the logistics, setup, and coordination, were diligently managed by the Student Council Members under the guidance of the teaching staff.

Principal Madam addressed the gathering, appreciating the efforts of the students and staff. She emphasized the evolving role of pharmacists and encouraged students to continue their journey with dedication and passion.

The event concluded with a formal Vote of Thanks delivered by Mr. Addas Shaikh, expressing gratitude towards the staff, student council, and all participants. This was followed by a group photoshoot to capture the memories of the day.

Conclusion:

The Pharmacist Day celebration at AIMS College of Pharmacy was a grand success, reflecting the unity, enthusiasm, and professional commitment of both students and faculty. It served as a reminder of the vital role pharmacists play in the healthcare system and inspired students to take pride in their future profession.
