

DATE: 30/01/26

REPORT ON YUGANTAR 2.0

Sr. No.	Particulars	Remarks
1.	Subject	Cultural Event
2.	Topic	YUGANTAR 2.0 Traditional Day Bollywood Day/ Retro Day
3.	Venue	2 nd Floor, College Auditorium, AIMS Foundation, Vadvali, Dombivali (E)
4.	Day and Date	Tuesday- Wednesday, 27 th – 28 th January 2026
5.	Time	09:30 AM - 04:00 PM
6.	Teacher Co-ordinators	Dr. Chaitrali Bidikar Ms. Sakshi Singh

Principal

PRINCIPALAIMS College of Pharmacy
At-AIMS Foundation, Vadavli
Dombivli (E)

CULTURAL DAY REPORT

INTRODUCTION

On 27th and 28th January 2026, AIMS College of Pharmacy celebrated Cultural Days, a vibrant and memorable two-day event that beautifully reflected the rich traditions and dynamic spirit of India. The celebration was a harmonious blend of traditional values and contemporary expressions, filled with enthusiasm, creativity, music, colors, and unity.

The campus was transformed into a lively cultural arena where students and faculty members actively participated, making the event a grand success. The two themes — Traditional Day and Bollywood Day — added depth and excitement to the celebration.

❖ Purpose of the Celebration:

- The Cultural Day celebration served as a dynamic platform for students to:
- Showcase their artistic talents and creative abilities
- Express their cultural traditions and regional identities
- Build confidence through active participation
- Encourage teamwork and coordination
- Promote interaction and harmony among students from diverse backgrounds

The event aimed not only at entertainment but also at nurturing respect, unity, and cultural awareness within the academic community.

❖ Significance:

Cultural Day provided an opportunity to reconnect with our roots, celebrate traditional art forms, and promote a sense of belonging, pride, and respect for our shared cultural heritage. By combining Traditional and Bollywood themes, the event successfully bridged tradition and modernity, strengthening cultural understanding and unity among students and faculty members.

DAY 1: TRADITIONAL DAY

DATE: 27/01/2026

Special Events: Inauguration of Yugantar 2.0

Special Competition: RAMPWALK, MEHENDI, DANCE, SINGING

TRADITIONAL DAY The campus came alive with colors and traditions as students and faculty adorned themselves in traditional attire representing various states of India. From the elegance of Maharashtrian Nauvari sarees and Punjabi Patialas to the grace of South Indian silk sarees, Gujarati chaniya cholis, Rajasthani bandhni outfits, Bengali traditional wear, and classic kurta-pyjamas and dhotis, every ensemble symbolized the identity and pride of a particular region.

Students from B. Pharmacy and D. Pharmacy, along with staff and non-teaching members, confidently walked the ramp in traditional outfits. The event was a wonderful blend of tradition and style.

1] INAUGURATION OF YUGANTAR 2.0

The celebration commenced with the formal inauguration of Yugantar 2.0, marking a new beginning filled with creativity, enthusiasm, and cultural pride. The inauguration was carried out by the administrative heads and senior staff members of the Pharmacy Department, whose gracious presence added prestige and inspiration to the event.

The ceremony began on an auspicious note with a soulful Saraswati Vandana, invoking the blessings of Goddess Saraswati for wisdom and knowledge. The devotional presentation created a serene and spiritually uplifting atmosphere across the venue.

This was followed by the traditional Lighting of the Diyas by the esteemed dignitaries and respected teachers. The lighting of the lamp symbolized the triumph of knowledge over ignorance and the beginning of a prosperous journey for Yugantar 2.0.

The dignitaries present for the occasion were:

- Mrs. Ashwini Bharati
- Mrs. Anuradha Sakhare
- Mrs. Shweta Gaikwad
- Mrs. Neelam Bhambare

They were warmly felicitated as a mark of respect and gratitude for their constant guidance and support. The felicitation ceremony was gracefully conducted by Dr. Chaitrali Bidikar and Ms. Sakshi Singh, who expressed appreciation for the dignitaries' valuable contributions to the institution.

Adding a devotional and cultural essence to the inauguration, a beautiful dance performance was presented by S.Y.B. Pharm student Ms. Mansi Kamble, dedicated to Lord Ganesha. Through her graceful movements and expressive performance, she sought the blessings of Lord Ganesha for the success of the event. The performance was mesmerizing and spiritually uplifting, captivating the audience and marking a powerful and auspicious beginning to Yugantar 2.0.

The inauguration ceremony concluded on a positive and celebratory note, officially setting the stage for the vibrant competitions and activities of Traditional Day.

2] TRADITIONAL RAMP WALK COMPETITION:

One of the most awaited highlights of the celebration was the Traditional Ramp Walk Competition, which brought together students, teachers, and non-teaching staff on a common platform to showcase elegance, confidence, and cultural diversity.

The ramp was beautifully decorated to reflect traditional aesthetics, creating a festive ambiance. Participants from B. Pharmacy and D. Pharmacy departments walked the ramp dressed in traditional attire representing different states of India. From graceful sarees, royal lehengas, and elegant salwar suits to classic kurta-pajamas and dhotis, every outfit reflected the richness of Indian heritage.

Adding a special regional touch to the event, several students proudly represented the culture of Maharashtra and its diverse districts and communities. Some participants beautifully showcased traditional Koli attire, reflecting the vibrant fisher folk culture with authentic saree draping style, traditional jewellery, and energetic expressions. Others represented the Agri community, highlighting rural Maharashtrian traditions through distinctive clothing, accessories, and cultural presentation. A few students also portrayed traditional looks from different regions of Maharashtra, celebrating the state's unique customs, folk identity, and cultural pride.

Their confident walk, traditional poses, and brief explanations about their attire helped the audience understand the cultural significance behind each representation. This thoughtful presentation transformed the ramp walk into not just a fashion showcase, but a meaningful celebration of regional heritage and unity in diversity.

What made the event even more special was the enthusiastic participation of faculty members and non-teaching staff, who confidently walked the ramp alongside students. Their presence encouraged students and strengthened the bond between teachers and learners, creating a joyful and inclusive atmosphere.

Participants were judged on:

- Confidence and stage presence
- Traditional authenticity of attire
- Creativity and presentation
- Overall personality and expression

The audience cheered enthusiastically, and the event turned into a vibrant celebration of culture, style, and unity. The Ramp Walk not only enhanced self-confidence among participants but also encouraged appreciation for India's diverse traditions.

Judges for Ramp Walk: Mrs. Ashwini Bharati, Mrs. Anuradha Sakhare, Mrs. Shweta Gaikwad & Mrs. Neelam Bhambare.

3] MEHENDI COMPETITION:

On 27th January 2026, a successful Mehendi competition was held at the college, showcasing students' creativity and artistic skills, with participants adorning each other's with intricate henna designs, fostering a sense of community and cultural appreciation.

Details:

- Date: 27th JAN 2026
- Event: Mehendi Competition
- Organized by: AIMS COLLEGE OF PHARMACY
- Purpose: To provide a platform for students to showcase their artistic skills and creativity through the art of Mehendi, as well as to celebrate Indian culture and traditions.
- Judge: Mayuri Mam and Kajal Yadav Mam

- Event Summary :

- Students enthusiastically participated by creating intricate and beautiful henna designs on the hands of teachers and fellow participants. The competition displayed a wide range of designs, from traditional patterns to contemporary styles.
- The event successfully fostered cultural appreciation, creativity, and a strong sense of community. Participants received positive feedback from the judges, making the competition a grand success.

Winners:

1st Prize: Asfiya Khan (T.Y B Pharm)

2nd Prize: Namrata Warghade (S.Y B Pharm)

3rd Prize: Himanshi Sharma (T.Y B Pharm)

4] DANCE COMPETITION:

On January 27, 2026, AIMS College of Pharmacy, Mumbai, Maharashtra, hosted a thrilling dance competition, where students mesmerized the audience with their moves, spinning a tale of talent, enthusiasm, and sheer joy.

Event Details:

- Date: 27th January 2026
- Event: Dance Competition
- Judges: Ms. Mayuri Gosavi and Mrs. Deepali Yevale

Event Summary: Students delivered vibrant and captivating performances showcasing various dance styles. The competition highlighted their creativity, coordination, and passion for performing arts. The audience thoroughly enjoyed the lively performances, making it one of the most entertaining segments of the day.

Winners:

1st Prize: Mansi Kamble (S.Y B Pharm)

2nd Prize: Nikita Landge (F.Y D Pharm)

3rd Prize: Nikita Yadav (F.Y D Pharm)

5] SINGING COMPETITION:

The Singing Competition added a melodious charm to the Traditional Day celebration. The event witnessed participation from both students and teachers, making it a delightful and heart-warming experience for everyone present.

Event Details:

- Date: 27th January 2026
- Event: Singing Competition
- Participants: Students of AIMS COLLEGE OF PHARMACY
- Judges: Ms. Mayuri Gosavi and Mrs. Deepali Yevale

Event Summary: Participants performed a variety of songs ranging from classical and beatboxing to Bollywood and regional songs. Each performance reflected passion, dedication, and confidence.

The teachers who participated set a wonderful example by showcasing their hidden musical talents, motivating students to perform fearlessly.

Participants were evaluated based on:

- Voice quality and clarity
- Rhythm and pitch control
- Stage confidence
- Song selection and overall impact

The audience applauded each performance, and the atmosphere was filled with enthusiasm and appreciation.

Winners:

1st Prize: Addas Shaikh (T.Y B Pharm)

2nd Prize: Mansi Kamble and Vedant Pandey (S.Y B Pharm)

3rd Prize: Priti Dhari (F.Y B Pharm)

DAY 2: BOLLYWOOD DAY / RETRO DAY

DATE: 28/01/2026

Special Competition: RAMPWALK, SHAYARI, FOOD FESTIVAL

Special Events: Fish Pond, Result Announcement and DJ

Bollywood theme/ Retro theme

The Bollywood / Retro Theme Day was celebrated with tremendous enthusiasm and vibrant energy. Students as well as faculty members actively participated, dressing up as their favourite Bollywood stars and iconic retro characters. From legendary film personalities to unforgettable cinematic roles, the campus came alive with a colourful display of creativity, glamour, and nostalgia. Some participants recreated classic retro looks inspired by the golden era of Bollywood, while others showcased modern blockbuster styles.

1] Bollywood Day Ramp Walk:

One of the major highlights of the day was the Ramp Walk, where participants confidently walked the stage, introducing their characters with style and elegance. Their expressions, dialogues, and body language added authenticity to their portrayal, making the event engaging and entertaining for the audience. The ramp walk encouraged confidence, stage presence, and self-expression among students.

(Recognized By : Pharmacy Council of India (PCI), New Delhi, Government of Maharashtra, Directorate of Technical Education, Mumbai
(Affiliated To : University of Mumbai, Maharashtra State Board of Technical Education (MSBTE))

2] SHAYARI COMPETITION:

The Shayari Competition was successfully organized to encourage literary creativity and provide a meaningful platform for artistic expression among students and faculty members. The event celebrated the beauty of words, emotions, and cultural diversity through poetry and expressive recitation.

- Event: Shayari Competition
- Date: 28th January 2026
- Judges: Ms. Neha Tambitkar, Ms. Anita Randive and Ms. Nahid Khan

The Shayari Competition was organized with the objective of promoting literary creativity and providing a platform for students to express their thoughts, emotions, and perspectives through poetry. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from both teacher and students who showcased their talent in the art of shayari, reflecting themes of love, patriotism, friendship, motivation, and social awareness. Participants presented their shayaris in Hindi, Marathi, English, and Urdu, each bringing a unique flavour and emotional depth to the stage.

The atmosphere during the competition was filled with emotions, rhythm, and meaningful expressions that captivated the audience.

Winners:1st Prize: Shadaf (T.Y B Pharm)2nd Prize: Chandana (F.Y D Pharm)3rd Prize: Mansi Kamble (S.Y B Pharm)3] FOOD FEST:

Event: Food Fest Competition

Date: 28th January 2026

Organized by: AIMS College of Pharmacy

On 28th January 2026, AIMS College of Pharmacy organized a vibrant Food Fest Competition where students showcased their culinary skills through diverse and creative food stalls. A variety of snacks, desserts, and beverages were presented with excellent taste and presentation. The judges evaluated the participants based on taste, creativity, hygiene, and teamwork. The event was a great success and promoted unity, creativity, and enthusiasm among students and faculty members.

Winners:1st Prize: Vedant and Team (S.Y B Pharm)2nd Prize: Talha (T.Y B Pharm)3rd Prize: Anjali and Team (T.Y B Pharm)4] FISH POND:

On 28th February 2026, AIMS College of Pharmacy organized a lively and interactive Fish Pond Activity as part of the cultural celebrations. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students of D.Pharmacy and B.Pharmacy.

Event: Fish PondDate: 28th February 2026Venue: Auditorium of AIMS College of PharmacyParticipants: D.Pharmacy and B.Pharmacy StudentsCoordinators: Ms. Neha Tambitkar, Ms. Dhanashree Bhosale

Event Summary:

To build excitement, an empty fish pond was placed

Event: DJ Celebration

Venue: College Auditorium, AIMS College of Pharmacy

Date: 28th January 2026

Organized by: Cultural Committee

The auditorium was beautifully arranged with lighting and sound systems, creating a vibrant and festive ambiance. As the music began, students gathered enthusiastically on the dance floor, enjoying a mix of Bollywood, retro, and popular tracks.

The DJ session encouraged students to participate freely, dance confidently, and celebrate together. The energy in the auditorium was contagious, with students and faculty members cheering and enjoying the lively environment.

Proper discipline and safety measures were maintained throughout the event, ensuring a smooth and well-organized celebration.

Event Summary:

The DJ Event was a grand success and became one of the most memorable highlights of the cultural celebrations. It strengthened bonds among students, promoted unity, and created joyful memories that will be cherished for years to come.

Principal

PRINCIPAL

AIMS College of Pharmacy
At-AIMS Foundation, Vadavli
Dombivli (E)