REPORT OF NATIONAL LIBRARIAN DAY

INTRODUCTION

National Librarian Day is celebrated in India every year on 12th August to commemorate the birth anniversary of Dr. S. R. Ranganathan, the Father of Library Science in India. The day recognizes the significant role of librarians and libraries in promoting education, knowledge, research, and reading habits among students.

To mark National Librarian Day, an engaging programme was organized for the students of B. Pharmacy and D. Pharmacy. As part of the celebration, an Essay Writing Competition and a Bookmark Making Competition were conducted. The activities aimed to encourage students to develop reading habits, express their thoughts creatively, and understand the importance of libraries in academic and professional life.

EXPLANATION

1. Essay Writing Competition

An Essay Writing Competition was organized for B. Pharmacy and D. Pharmacy students. Students were given topics related to the importance of books, libraries, reading habits, education, and the role of libraries in students' lives.

The competition provided students with an opportunity to express their thoughts and ideas through effective writing. It also helped develop their communication skills, creative thinking, vocabulary, and knowledge.

Students participated enthusiastically and presented meaningful ideas highlighting how libraries provide valuable academic resources and support students in their studies and professional development.

The Essay Writing Competition was conducted successfully for the students of B. Pharmacy and D. Pharmacy. The Essay Writing Competition were assessed and evaluated by Mrs. Anuradha Ma'am based on creativity, originality, presentation, content, and overall quality of the work.

The winners of the Essay Writing Competition were announced and felicitated for their excellent performance and active participation.
