REPORT ON DUSSERA & GARBA CELEBRATION

INTRODUCTION

AIMS College of Pharmacy celebrated Dussehra and Garba Utsav on Monday, 12th October 2026, with great enthusiasm and festive spirit. The programme was organized as a cultural activity for D. Pharmacy and B. Pharmacy students and staff members. The celebration was held at the Ground Floor Lobby, AIMS Foundation, Dombivli (E), from 01:00 p.m. to 04:00 p.m. The event aimed to promote cultural values, traditional practices and togetherness among students and faculty members.

EXPLANATION

The celebration commenced with Saraswati Pujan in the college library, seeking the blessings of Goddess Saraswati for knowledge, wisdom and success. The Principal, Dr. (Mrs.) Vanita G. Kanase, and the Head of Department participated in the lamp-lighting ceremony, marking an auspicious beginning to the celebration.

Following the pujan, sweets were distributed among all staff members as a gesture of festive joy and togetherness.

The celebration continued with an energetic Garba and Dandiya session, where students enthusiastically participated and enjoyed dancing to traditional Garba music with a DJ. Students arrived dressed in colourful traditional attire, including beautiful ghagras and kurtas, adding vibrancy and charm to the celebration. The lively music, traditional performances and enthusiastic participation created a joyful festive atmosphere throughout the event.

CONCLUSION

The Dussehra and Garba celebration concluded on a joyful note, filled with cultural enthusiasm, happiness and togetherness. The event provided students and staff with an opportunity to celebrate Indian traditions, showcase their cultural spirit and strengthen bonds beyond academics. The celebration was successfully conducted with the active participation of students and staff members.
